Medical determinations, such as determinations of the need for and appropriateness of specific types of medical care and treatment for an individual, are not adjudicative matters and are beyond the Board's jurisdiction. Typical examples of these issues are whether a particular drug should be prescribed, whether a specific type of physiotherapy should be ordered, and similar judgmental treatment decisions with which an attending physician may be faced.

(c) Appeals as to jurisdiction. All claimants have the right to appeal a determination made by the agency of original jurisdiction that the Board does not have jurisdictional authority to review a particular issue. This includes questions relating to the timely filing and adequacy of the Notice of Disagreement and the Substantive Appeal. Subject to review by courts of competent jurisdiction, only the Board of Veterans' Appeals will make final decisions with respect to its jurisdiction.
